Eligibility for Competitions

All full playing members may play in competitions subject to the following: -

Players must have a World Handicap to receive a prize or be eligible to win the competition.

Players must enter their name and pay appropriate entry fee prior to any competition commencement.

Complete the appropriate card for competition in line with R&A rules.

Junior Members are allowed to Compete in major Competitions but must have their card marked or verified by an adult member.

Country, New to Golf members may participate in the competition (to assist in gaining and maintaining a handicap), providing they have entered and paid appropriate entry; however, they are not eligible to win any major or honours board competition, or Qualify for any Knockout Stages or Medal Finals.

All competitions will be conducted within the rules of golf R&A, World Handicapping System and Filey GC the results will be published on the relevant notice boards once and competitions have been checked and closed.

The decisions of the Competitions Committee will be final, subject to adherence within the rules of Golf. Failure by any player not adhering to the R&A, CONGU and club rules and entry criteria will be disqualification. Further disciplinary may arise should the players actions warrant such. All players have the right to appeal such decisions, their appeal should be submitted in writing to the Competitions Chairman, where such appeal will be investigated.
